

Big IKE Crawfish Boil Fundraiser

The Big IKE Revival Crawfish & Seafood Boil is more than a fundraiser — it's a community gathering designed to support Aldine Eisenhower student-athletes on and off the field.

This event helps fund:

- Athletic development and training resources
- Academic and extracurricular support
- Recruiting exposure and offseason preparation
- Program needs for Eisenhower Athletics

Every ticket purchased and every dollar donated strengthens the future of Big IKE.

Attend the Event

Join us for great food, great people, and a great cause.

Support Through Donation

If you're unable to attend, you can still make an impact.

You may donate any amount through our community partner, The WHYME Foundation, a registered nonprofit organization.

A portion of all donations will go directly toward supporting Eisenhower Athletics and student-athletes.

Your support helps remove barriers and create access to opportunities our athletes deserve.

Why It Matters

Big IKE thrives when alumni, families, and the community come together.

This fundraiser is one of many ways we're building a sustainable support system for current and future Eagles.

Once an Eagle. Always an Eagle.
